Learning and living life in all its fullness

THE SCHOOL BELL

Friday 17th July 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

It's a good job I am writing this rather than speaking it as you'd never hear me thanks to the aerial display team practising overhead! We've had our own stellar performance this week (look at that brilliant tenuous link!) with the Year 6 children's production of 'Robin and the Sherwood Hoodies.' The quality of the singing was unbelievable, and I also particularly enjoyed seeing a different side to lots of children who absolutely threw themselves into their characters, making the show all the more enjoyable as a result. Thank you to Year 6 for providing such a wonderful performance, and to all of the staff and volunteers who have worked their socks off to bring everything together. Thank you also to the small army of parents who made the set and props pretty much instantly disappear from the church last night- we really appreciated the help to return the church ready for use today.

Two and a half days left but still tons of fun, friendship and fact-absorbing to be done (learning didn't start with an 'f')! A reminder that we have a clear expectation that all children should be in school every day and this includes next week. We look forward to seeing everyone on Monday ready for the final countdown!

Depending on when I send this, if you are coming, or have come, to our FOSP mini-fair, thank you for your support!

Have a great weekend,

Mr Hogan-Fleming

UNWANTED AND OUTGROWN UNIFORM

Please donate your good quality, washed uniform to the FOSP Uniform Shop. Simply bag it up and take it to the office. Thank you!

If you have good quality, outgrown trainers, these are also useful for PE if your children no longer need them.

More uniform!

Please don't forget to NAME everything, particularly jumpers and cardigans. We regularly have a whole class-worth of unnamed jumpers which we cannot reunite with their owner.

The holidays are a great time to get out the labels or pens to ensure names are added.

FOSP have a fundraising deal with 'Tiny Me' which you can use to buy personalised items including labels. If you use the link below, 20% goes back to FOSP, so not only are you ensuring nothing gets lost, you are also helping support FOSP at the same time. Bonus!

September Uniform Guidance

We are usually fairly lenient with shoes in Summer 2 as we know children grow.

However, a new year means a fresh start and we would like everyone to be aware of our expectations for uniform.

We do allow children to wear trainers as 'uniform' shoes but these must be PLAIN and BLACK, with no white/coloured soles or flashes.

On the same theme, hair accessories should be simple and in plain black/brown, or school colours of blue and white.

We appreciate your support in ensuring that children's appearance reflects the pride we all take in our school. Further guidance is in the parent handbook.
